

Teen Numerals and Number Words

reading teen number words, writing teen numerals, one ten and some ones, and comparing teen numbers

Directions

- A teen numeral always starts with the digit for one ten. The second digit is the ones.
 - Word bank: eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen.
 - Say the number out loud before you write it. Best spelling counts — sound it out.
-

- 1. Write the numeral for the number word thirteen.

thirteen = _____

- 2. Write the numeral for the number word seventeen.

seventeen = _____

- 3. Look at the numeral 15.

(a) 15 is one ten and _____ ones.

(b) Write the number word for 15. _____

4. Look at the numeral 16.

16 is one ten and _____ ones.

5. Write the numeral for the number word eleven. This word does not say its ones part out loud, so think about how many are left after one ten.

eleven = _____

6. Think about the number word eighteen.

(a) Write its numeral. _____

(b) Write how many ones that numeral has. _____

7. Look at the numeral 12.

(a) 12 is one ten and _____ ones.

(b) Write the number word for 12. _____

8. Two number words: fourteen and nineteen.

(a) Write the numeral for fourteen. _____

(b) Write the numeral for nineteen. _____

(c) Now write $<$, $>$, or $=$ between the two numerals you wrote. _____

9. Ravi was asked for the numeral that matches the number word fifteen. Ravi wrote 51.

(a) Write the correct numeral. _____

(b) Explain what Ravi mixed up.

10. Write these three number words as numerals, in order from least to greatest.

sixteen eleven fourteen

least _____ _____ _____ greatest