

Teen Numbers: Numerals and Number Words

Teen numbers as one ten and some ones, number words to numerals, numerals to number words, and comparing teen numbers.

- Say each number out loud before you write it.
- A filled row of ten dots is one ten. Count the extra dots as ones.
- Number words you may need: eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen.

1. One full ten-frame and some extra dots. Count the dots and write the numeral.

Answer: _____

2. Fill in the numeral. One ten and 7 ones make what teen number?

Answer: _____

3. Write the numeral for the number word fourteen.

Answer: _____

4. Read the numeral 18 out loud.

Write 18 as a number word: _____

Now finish the place-value sentence: 18 is one ten and _____ ones.

5. One full ten-frame and some extra dots. Count the dots and write the numeral.

Answer: _____

6. Read the numeral 12 out loud.

Write 12 as a number word: _____

Now finish the place-value sentence: 12 is one ten and _____ ones.

7. Write the numeral for the number word sixteen.

Answer: _____

8. Rosa has 15 stickers. Exactly one ten of them are inside a bag and the rest are loose on the table. How many stickers are loose?

Answer: _____

9. Leo counted 13 blocks. Nina counted 15 blocks.
Write  $<$  or  $>$  in the blank so the sentence is true:

13 _____ 15

Answer: _____

10. Sam has fourteen shells. Mia has seventeen shells.
First write each number word as a numeral. Then write  $<$  or  $>$  so the sentence is true:

Sam's number _____ Mia's number _____

Answer: _____